

Solstice Song by Alouette Iselin

Arr. Peter Amidon

CHORUS

*Let me come in and share your light,
For I'm without a friend tonight,
Let me come in and share your light,
And a warm place by your fire.*

It looks so golden warm within,
Sheltered from the winter wind,
Songs and laughter, friends and kin
Have brought me to your door.

Open your door, for here I stand,
My only gift is my empty hand,
And empty heart and broken plans,
This dark day of the year.

I am without a home today,
And soon I will be on my way,
I only ask you to let me stay,
For an hour by your fire.

69 All
Let me come in and share your light for I'm with -

74
out a friend to - night, Let me come in and

79
share your light and a warm place by your fire.

Let it Go - original 2 verses by Michael Leunig & Suzann Verney, 3 new verses by Hilary Whyard!

Let it go, let it out,
Let it all unravel,
Let it free and it can be,
A path on which to travel

See our love, see it all,
See how love surrounds you
See the sky, where you can fly
And keep your friends around you

Cherish sun, cherish wind,
Let the rain fall all around us,
Rise refreshed and newly dressed
In finest robes of our new purpose.

Breathe out despair, breath in repair
Let your breath renew you,
Feel the balm of welcome calm
As its grace moves freely through you.

Let the circle pull us in,
Let us turn to one another,
Our song will rise and harmonise
A brand new dream of every colour.

Galileo's Song - melody by Haydn, lyrics by Sarah Williams.

Though my soul may set in darkness,
It will rise in perfect light.

I have loved the stars too fondly
To be fearful of the night,
Fearful of the night.
