First Light by Penny Stone

May the stars shine brightly on you in the dark night,

May the warmth of friends sustain you 'til the first light.

When the dawn will come, bring the warmth of the sun,

And the songbirds will be singing in the morning.

//: May the bright stars in the dark sky

Watch over your longest night ://

A Green Cornfield - Words by Christina Rossetti/music K Logan

The earth was green, the sky was blue:

I saw and heard one sunny morn

A skylark hang between the two,

A singing speck above the corn;

A stage below, in gay accord,

White butterflies danced on the wing,

And still the singing skylark soared,

And silent sank and soared to sing.

The cornfield stretched a tender green

To right and left beside my walks;

I knew he had a nest unseen

Somewhere among the million stalks.

And as I paused to hear his song

While swift the sunny moments slid,

Perhaps his mate sat listening long,

And listened longer than I did.
